

Chapter 68. Personnel Policy

§ 68-19. General prohibitions.

D.

No employee in the classified service or unclassified service shall be demoted, suspended, terminated or otherwise discriminated against in respect to his/her position because of refusal to pay, or promise to pay any assessment, subscription, or contribution, or perform any service for any political party, or solicit or take any part in soliciting any such assessment, subscription, contribution or service of any employee.

E.

No employee in the classified or unclassified service shall, during regular working hours, take any part in the management of affairs of any political party or in any political campaign, except to exercise his/her right as a citizen, privately, to express his/her opinion and to cast his/her vote.

F.

No employee in the classified or unclassified service shall use his/her position in the classified or unclassified service as a means of implementing or promoting any political or personal gain.

Gene's comments

In D, employees could be afraid not to help Betty take her contributions and her auction items for fear of retaliation.

In E and F....well, I'd say that was pretty clear! Yet, in the fundraising flyer we have a violation of it with Ms McKenna's written signature on it. AND we have a place, time, and date of Ms. McKenna distributing her campaign signs during the regular work hours of the Row Office known as the Recorder of Deeds.
